

The University of Saskatchewan (USask) collects and creates information about students ("personal information") under the authority of the University of Saskatchewan Act and in accordance with the Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. This information may be used for purposes of admission, registration, monitoring academic progress and other decisions on students' academic status, the administration of USask and its programs and services, including services for students of Aboriginal ancestry. This may include contacting students to offer programs and services that may be of benefit to them. USask will also use this information for statistical reporting purposes and some of this information may be used or disclosed in accordance with the Act, and will be reported as required by federal or provincial authority.

Self Declaration

Completion of this information is voluntary. Please indicate whether or not you are of Aboriginal ancestry.

Students who self declare their Aboriginal ancestry in PAWS will:

- Be invited to events and activities specifically for Aboriginal students (for example: Graduation Powwow and Aboriginal Achievement Week)
- Be notified of mentorship, volunteer, job and scholarship/award opportunities

Knowing how many Aboriginal students attend the U of S:

- Helps us proudly say we have one of the highest populations of Aboriginal students among Canadian post-secondary institutions and that our diversity gives us strength
- Helps the USSU determine the appropriate number of Aboriginal students who sit on the USSU University Students' Council

Aboriginal Ancestry is determined by reference to the Constitution Act of 1982 and includes Indian (non-status/status), Métis and Inuit persons of Canada as well as persons who are accepted by one of the Aboriginal peoples of Saskatchewan as a member of their community.

Yes No

Field Experiences

The Bachelor of Education program includes field study components which may or may not occur in La Ronge. By responding to this question, I acknowledge that I am aware of this information.

Yes No

Criminal Record Status

An increasing number of school divisions require a criminal record check for all teacher candidates participating in field study experiences. The Saskatchewan Professional Teachers Regulatory Board also requires a criminal record check for all individuals applying for a Saskatchewan Teacher's Certificate. As per these policies, you may not be allowed in schools or eligible for a Saskatchewan Teacher's Certificate if you have a criminal record. Please indicate your criminal record status by selecting one of these options.

To the best of my knowledge, I do not have a criminal record that would prevent me from working with children.

I am unsure if my criminal record would prevent me from working with children and youth.

My criminal record would prevent me from working with children and youth.
