

Bachelor of Arts

Three- or Four-Year Degree
Buffalo Narrows; Creighton; Ile-a-la-Crosse; La Loche; La Ronge

September 2019 – April 2020

Program Overview

In today's increasingly globalized workforce, employers are looking for individuals able to think critically and adapt to changing environments. Bachelor of Arts degrees prepare students to do precisely that.

Students are able to complete a degree with a major in: English, Indigenous Studies, Political Studies, or Sociology.

Full- and part-time studies available.

Applicants must be proficient in the English language.

Three-Year B.A. Degree

Students intending to apply to a non-direct entry professional program, such as law or nutrition, often find these degrees a good fit as they complete their pre-professional years.

Four-Year B.A. Degree

Four-year programs are the most common undergraduate degrees. Students interested in pursuing graduate studies (M.A. or Ph.D.) must first obtain a four-year degree.
