

Mental Health & Wellness

Diploma: Year 1 of 2
Air Ronge, SK

September 3, 2019 – June 5, 2020

Program Overview

It takes emotional maturity, good people skills and a strong sense of self to become a mental health & wellness counsellor. In the first year of studies students will learn and apply Indigenous and Western-based holistic approaches to healing and addictions counselling. Students will focus on internal self growth that will enable the student to grow holistically and become familiar with the role of a mental health counsellor. An instructor with real world experience will provide training in:

- Interpersonal communication
- Youth care
- Indigenous healing
- Therapy for families
- Recovery models
- Modern technologies

There are two 4 week field placements included, out of town travel with extended stays may be required.

Accepted applicants will be required to provide:

- Evidence of a Vulnerable Sector Check
- Criminal Record Check
- S.I.I.T. character reference form

Note: A positive result on the VSC may result in the loss of your accepted seat. Students must meet the minimum VSC criteria set out by the practicum agency
